1. Do you think the conceptual design of the Draft Framework works? What would you change?

I found the double mention of Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander perspectives a bit confusing. Also the fact that this element seems to have equal emphasis as library skills. I'm not entirely convinced it belongs in the diagram. It is of high importance but just doesn't seem to fit. Equally important are diverse perspectives such as LGBTQIA but these haven't been mentioned specifically for example. A broader category that reinforces diverse perspectives including Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander perspectives would make more sense to me.

2. Are there any elements that you would add, amend, or remove?

See above

3. Would a Framework along the lines of the draft Framework be useful to you in your career or workplace? How could you see it being used?

Unsure. Maybe for staff who don't undertake CPD voluntarily.

4. Is LIS professional recognition valuable to you? What changes would you like to see to professional recognition?

Essential. My membership to professional member organisations is very important to me.

5. Any other comments?
